

CURRICULUM VITAE

FBI Witness

Hugh S. Williamson

Federal Bureau of Investigation

Technical Surveillance Section
Audio Surveillance Unit
Operational Technology Division
Quantico, VA 22135

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

| | |
|----------------|---|
| 1999 – Present | Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation |
| 2013 – Present | Supervisory Special Agent assigned to the Audio Surveillance Unit (ASU), Operational Technology Division (OTD), Quantico, VA. Manage the FBI Covert Body Recorder program and Covert Body Worn Transmitter program which provide covert recorders and transmitters for use in court authorized electronic surveillance (ELSUR). |
| 2012 – 2013 | Supervisory Special Agent assigned to the Audio Technology Development Unit (ATDU), Operational Technology Division (OTD), Quantico, VA. Managed Microphone Audio Program and Intelligible Audio Program. |
| 2009 – 2012 | Supervisory Special Agent assigned to the Technical Operations Coordination Unit (TOCU) Operational Technology Division (OTD), Quantico, VA. Coordinated OTD technical support to Field Offices. |
| 2004 – 2009 | Supervisory Special Agent assigned to the Counterterrorism Division, Washington, DC. |
| 1999 – 2004 | Special Agent assigned to the Baltimore Division. Investigated criminal, terrorism, and national security matters. |
| 1997 – 1999 | Marine Corps Officer, Headquarters Marine Corps, Washington, DC. |
| 1995 – 1997 | Office Manager, Family Life Center, Port Charlotte, FL. |

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE (con't)

1989 – 1993 Marine Corps Officer, 10th Marines, 2nd Marine Division,
Camp Lejeune, NC

EDUCATION

Florida State University, Tallahassee, FL – Bachelor of Arts in History

Regent University, Virginia Beach, VA – Master of Arts in Public Policy

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING

Basic Electronics

Basic Microphone and Audio

Video over IP